Stepping Stones
Ambleside

LL2557

TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE

POSTKARTE

ARTISTIC SERIES TRADE MARK

"PICTURESQUE ENGLISH LAKES."—H. B. WIMBUSH

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "Oilette" Canvasser Real Photo Series 2726.

ART PUBLISHERS TO THE KING & QUEEN

The Stepping-Stones, Ambleside, are a number of large stones used as a path over the River Duddon. After rain it is impossible to walk across as the stones are covered with water. This spot is extremely picturesque owing to the magnificent woods and high mountains in the distance. Wordsworth's poem, "The Stepping Stones," describes the place exactly.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY)

PRINTED IN ENGLAND.

CT PAID